

Displaying the traveline elements in white on a solid traveline green background is particularly effective. This clearly separates the other bus stop elements above and below the traveline panel. The two colour version on a white background is permissible.

Please see the next page for variations in content.

The recommended minimum clear space based on the circular eye of the smile symbol referred to as x still applies.

Brand mark with stop txt / web / telephone in white on traveline green

Brand mark with
stop txt / web / telephone
in traveline green and orange on a white background